DO No. BSNL/39-1/SR/2009
Dated, the 8th June, 2009

Dear Shri Namboodiri,

Please refer your letter no. BSNLEU/100(GL) dated 28.4.2009 addressed to CMD, BSNL raising a number of allegations against GM (SR) in the Corporate Office.

2. I have carefully examined the allegations and have arrived at the conclusion that the incumbent to the post of GM (SR) was not responsible for the delays mentioned in your letter under reference. You would appreciate that in the set-up, we have a well-established hierarchy to take decisions. Moreover, at times the procedures involved to resolve certain issues also consume time. In such a situation, it may not be fair to assume that some one is bent upon to delay the matters of the recognised union or prevent certain privileges to it.

3. I presume it is suffice to alleviate your apprehensions about the role of GM (SR) in the system and assure you that BSNL management including the officers down below the line are sympathetic and considerate towards the recognised union. In case of any further doubts, please feel free to have discussions with me on a mutually convenient time.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(GOPAL DAS)
